

SESSION #1: PARTNERSHIPS followed by morning tea

Chair: Shaun Hendy

9:00		Opening Address: Shaun Hendy (Past President NZAS)
9:15	Heide Friedrich	Co-President NZAS	Reflections
9:40	Jennifer Curtin	Director Public Policy Institute	Brokering policy conversations across disciplines and sectors
10:00	John Roche	Departmental Chief Science Adviser for MPI	Science into policy in the Primary Sector
10:20	Matthew Howe	Patent Attorney Origin Intellectual Property	Does science drive IP, or does IP drive science?

SESSION #2: SOCIETAL RESILIENCE followed by lunch and AGM

Chair: Peter Buchanan

11:10	Steve Webster	Chief Infrastructure Officer at Watercare	Customer expectations, technology, science and policy: Are they flowing in the same direction?
11:30	Richard Reinen-Hamill	Sector Director Natural Hazard Resilience Tonkin + Taylor	Dealing with natural hazards, risk and uncertainty with the long term policy requirements for resilient development – a practitioners perspective
11:50	Tahu Kukutai	Te Rūnanga Tātari Tatauranga - National Institute of Demographic and Economic Analysis	Māori data sovereignty: Directions and challenges
12:10	Arama Rata	Te Whare Wānanga o Waikato - The University of Waikato	Science and migration

SESSION #3: OPPORTUNITIES followed by closing remarks, refreshments and our Awards Ceremony 5-6pm

Chair: Nicola Gaston

13:40	Anne Bardsley	Centre for Science in Policy, Diplomacy and Society (SciPoDS)	The meth contamination story: An example of how science and policy interact (or not) in New Zealand
14:00	Reece Moors	Manager Programme Office and Strategic Relationships for NSC Science for Technological Innovation	Vision Mātauranga and the modern Māori economy: Challenges and opportunities for science
14:40	Craig Stevens	Co-President NZAS	A step-change in the connection between scientists and politicians: Science meets Parliament in NZ
15:00	Juliet Gerrard	the Prime Minister's Chief Science Advisor (PMCSA)	Rigorous, transparent, accessible and inclusive – interpreting principles for science advice in the context of Aotearoa, New Zealand
15:20	Panel discussion	Juliet Gerrard, Shaun Hendy, Jennifer Curtin, Prue Williams	Enabling New Zealand's Science Ecosystem

2018 NZAS CONFERENCE

NEW ZEALAND PERSPECTIVES AT THE INTERFACE OF SCIENCE AND POLICY

THURSDAY 15TH
NOVEMBER 2018

9am to 4pm

University of Auckland
Engineering Building
Room 401.439

SCIENTISTS.ORG.NZ
New Zealand
Association of Scientists

stay on for
AWARDS 5-6PM

Cranwell Medal
Hill Tinsley Medal
Marsden Medal
Shorland Medal

register here

(scientists.org.nz/event-3032237)